PAPER HANGING,

Little Brown Hands.

They drive home the cows from the pasture,

Up through the long shady lane,

Where the quail whistles loud in the wheat fields

That are yellow with ripening grain.

They find in the thick waving grass

Where the scarlet-tipped strawberry grows;

They gather the earliest snowdrops,

And the first crimson buds of the rose.

They toss the hay in the meadow;

They gather the elder bloom white;

They find where the daisy gasps purple

In the soft-lit October light.

They know where the apple hangs ripest,

And are sweeter than lady's wine;

They know where the fruit hangs the thickest

On the long-stemmed blackberry vines.

They gather the delicate gas-weeds,

And build tiny castles of sand;

Fairy banks that have drifted to land.

They were from the tall-roaming tree-tops

Where the Oriole's hammock nest swings.

And at night-time are folded in slumber

By a song that a fond mother sings.

Those who toil bravely are strongest;

Those who have the heart are truest;

And from those brown-handed children

Shall grow mighty rulers of state.

The pen of the author and statesman—

The noble and brave of the land.

The sword and chisel and palette

Shall be led in the little brown hand.

How It All Ended.

BY WILLIS GRIDDLE.

A gloriously beautiful woman, with deep, dark eyes, as dark as bits of midnight sky; hair that glimmered like waving drifts of gold in the sunlight, and changed into glistening silver in the shade. She was more than beautiful,

Dacre Dalrieth thought, as he stood there in the early autumn twilight, the pink and amber heavens looking calmly down upon them, and the dry brown leaves falling from the desolate trees and breaking the dead stillness with their almost human moan.

He was staring blankly up into her face,

and wondering why nature had made her so wondrously fair—gazing into her face,

all the voiceless love of his soul glowing in his eyes. He forgot the barrier between them—forgot everything save that he loved her better than his very soul.

And she was watching him as intently as he was watching her, and asking of herself why his tongue did not repeat the words of love that were stirring faintly

for utterance in his eyes; the words that would place another heart in the dust at her feet, and allow her to trample relentlessly upon it. For he was only a country physician, and she a girl, the daughter of wealth, and if he had not been in his honest love for her, he must bear the burden of his folly.

That was what Venice Verne said to herself as she stood there among the stately maple trees with Dacre Dalrieth hovering like a vassal at her side. And while she was musing thus, he had flung himself upon the leaf-lined orchard path

and, clasping her hand tightly within his own, told her the story she was listen-

A fresh outbreak of small pox is reported in San Francisco, nine cases having been discovered last week, with one death.

The total length of the streets of San Francisco is 110 miles, and the city has paid for all work, improvement and care on them during the past year, $282,682.

The heaviest snow storm ever experienced in the Black Hills since their settlement by white men, commenced on the 7th inst., and continued until the 12th.

The Workingmen held a mass meeting at Oakland, Tuesday night for the purpose of taking action in the case of Bones. Many speeches were made, in which threats were uttered against Bones' life.

It is reported that the Governor will next Monday send to the Senate his nomination of E. J. Lewis as Major General of the national Guard of the State, vice Vernon, resigned.

The narrow Gauge Railroad line will be formally opened between San Jose, San Francisco and Los Gatos, on the Santa Cruz road, on or about May 1st, and between Los Gatos and Alameda on Monday next.

Yolo Democrat: "It is said the relief canal will exist only on paper. The defeat of this measure is much to be regretted. Many of the river farmers now propose to build mounds for their houses and stock, and let the levees remain as they are. This may be a good idea, as it will at present save the people a large expense, and in the future, when they are more able, they may do something that will be of permanent value."

At midnight next Monday the 1st of April, this session of the Legislature will adjourn sine die, and scores of its members will be interred in a political grave, never to be resurrected. When poverty and want have appealed, it has turned a deaf ear. When its platform and pledges have been thrust into its face, it has scornfully tossed them aside, saying: "I know thee not—thou art not child of mine." When the people pleaded it has laughed; but the music of Spring Valley enchanted it, the tender pleadings made it eager to assist the corporation and battle against the desire of the people. Its wisdom might be more; its capacity for honest legislation could scarcely be less. It has but one week more of life. Let its epitaph be thus inscribed: "Born of an accident, sustained by a per diem, and died through the blessing of the Lord. R. I. P."—Sacramento Bee.

THE NEW REGISTRY BILL.—The Sacramento Bee says: The Joint Committee of the two houses of the Legislature have recommended the passage of a bill so amending the Registry law as to require each voter to be on the poll list of his precinct 28 days prior to the time of voting. That is a just and much needed law. It will greatly simplify honest voting and carry with it a moral power heretofore unknown at polling places. The precinct list being full four weeks before election, it can be examined and fraudulent voters detected, if any such be on it. In this city, on Tuesday last, over nine hundred persons voted on certificates! Where they came from, by whom they were colonized, why this influx and in whose interest is a matter of special wonderment. With such a law, this trouble, confusion and fraud, if fraud there be, would be avoided. This bill is a good one, and no doubt will soon become a law.

THE LEGISLATURE.

The present session of our Legislature is not calculated to produce a conviction in the minds of the people that they have chosen members of that body from the honest, fearless and patriotic class of citizens. The previous Legislature, though placed in the majority by the Democratic party, failed to fulfill their pledges and succumbed to the crushing power of the corporations, and in consequence lost us the State at the Presidential election. The present Legislature has followed in the footsteps of its dishonored predecessor, and remorseless corporations, it would seem, have again controlled a majority sufficient to carry their schemes of robbery into full fruition, should not the Governor interfere. One instance will serve for many that could be adduced. The Spring Valley Water Company, a close corporation under the management of Sharon, control the water supply of San Francisco. The entire property and good will of the corporation is valued at $8,000,000, which is allowed on all hands to afford a large margin for profit. This corporation offers its property and franchise to the city for the modest sum of $15,000,000; a bill is brought in, authorizing the city to complete this infamous swindle without the consent of the citizens, and is passed by the Senate by a considerable majority. We don't wonder that the wife of the Senator who voted for this infamous swindle should write to him: "I think you had better resign and come home, for there is about as much honor in going to the Senate as in going to jail."

READ THIS.

On the 10th day of June, 1878, the voters of California will be called upon to vote for delegates to the coming Constitutional Convention. Now, shall we, as a people, having the interests of our State at heart, looking to the welfare of the coming generations, considering the interests of all classes at the present time, knowing the present political status of our State, seeing as we have seen the evils arising out of partisan legislation, feeling as we now feel, the oppressive heel of capital and grinding monopolies—whose power is such that it defies the law, mocks at courts of justice, tramples on the rights of individuals, and in a measure, ignores the powers of the National Government—shall we, we ask in all candor, elect men to make our Constitution simply because they have been and are active partisans? God forbid. The history of the Republican party and many other parties we could mention, who have had and now have unchecked control of the reins of legislation, points out to us too clearly the evils arising from partisan and sectional legislation. Let each delegate be a man above reproach, who has the interests of his country at heart, not his district or party.

The Livermore Herald, speaking of beets, says: "Last Saturday, Mr. Orear, from the head of Morrow Bay, brought two specimens into our office that 'beat all.' One, a golden globe, that measured four feet around, another, a magnificent wurtzel, thirty-five inches around, and five feet four inches in length, and weighing seventy-four pounds. These beets were transplanted the latter part of May last, and therefore represent eight months' growth. To say that one hundred tons to the acre is possible for such beets is no exaggeration, and that, too, without rain or irrigation after they were planted. One advantage of this crop is that they continue to grow, year in and year out, so long as left in the ground. Hogs and sheep are as fond of them as cattle, and a little corn or barley fed along with the roots helps make an excellent quality of pork."

The Knight's Landing people who were compelled to evacuate their houses on account of the recent floods, are again returning to them.

Gents' clothing and furnishing goods at cost. Call early, while the stock is complete.—Blum & Co.

CORRESPONDENCE.

MADISON, March 28th, 1878.

EDITOR ADVOCATE:—We have but little of news to send you from our town, but such as we have we freely give you. The Labor Union League held an election to elect delegates to the County Convention, to be held on the 28th. C. A. Hurlbut, R. C. Davis, Len Huber, W. M. Lowes, R. E. Tutt and H. W. Atwell, were elected. The movement is gaining strength very rapidly here as elsewhere.

Last night some fun-loving boys prepared an effigy and hung it on the front of the butcher shop. On its breast was a board bearing this legend: "Chinese must go." On a card hanging near by was, "Office-speakers, beware. Six send for Maginnis. By order of 501, * * *." It created much amusement for a time, though of course some attempted to charge the act to working men and blame them for what was but a boyish freak, harmless in intention and results.

More rain, more rain. We are afloat again, or rather fear we will be soon. Cellars are filling again; so little rain is required to start navigation in Madison.

A social party was given, on Monday evening, at Godfrey Rudolph's, which was well attended and very enjoyable. The occasion was Miss Annie's birthday, and her numerous friends were intent on doing full justice to it.

MORE ANON.

JESUS CHRIST.

Description of Jesus Christ by Publius Lentulus, President of Judea, in the reign of Tiberius Caesar. There lives, at this time, in Judea, a man of singular virtue, whose name is Jesus Christ, whom the Barbarians esteem as a prophet, but his followers love and adore him as the offspring of the immortal God. He calls back the dead from the graves and heals diseases with a word or a touch. He is a tall man and well shaped; of an affable and reverend aspect; his hair of a color that can hardly be matched, falling in graceful curls, waving about, and very agreeably couching upon his shoulders, parted on the crown of the head, running as a stream to the front, after the fashion of the Nazarenes; his cheeks without spot or wrinkle; his nose formed with exquisite symmetry; his beard thick and of a color suitable to his hair, reaching below his chin and parting in the middle like a fork; his forehead high, large and imposing; his eyes bright and blue, clear and serene; in proportions of body most perfect and captivating; his hands and arms most delectable to behold. He rebukes with majesty; counsels with mildness; his whole address, whether in word or deed, being eloquent and grave. No man has seen him laugh, yet his manners are exceedingly pleasant; but he has wept frequently in the presence of men. He is temperate, modest and wise; a man, for his extraordinary beauty and divine perfections, surpassing the children of men in every respect.—Yolo Democrat.

After the defeat of Grove L. Johnson's infamous "Detraction Bill," some days ago, there came from the Assembly Judiciary Committee Room a substitute bill, to gag and muzzle the press, hardly any better than the original. A majority of that Committee recommended that it "do not pass." This press-gag bill came up yesterday. After a sharp debate, in which it was opposed by Swift, Waters and most of the honest speaking members of the Assembly, and upheld by Grove L. Johnson and his set, a motion to strike out the enacting clause was carried by—ayes, 35, noes, 30; absent or not voting, 14. This kills the monstrous thing for the session, but it by no means ends the contest that has been for years waged between an honest press and thieving politicians for the mastery.—S. F. Chronicle.

It is alleged that rich copper and silver mines have been discovered in the vicinity of Kane's Springs, Calaveras county.

Remember, we quit slaughtering goods on the 1st of May; don't lose the chance.

ROBINSON—N. at Winters, March 25, 1878, to W. H. Robinson and wife, a daughter.

NEW THIS WEEK.

SACRAMENTO AS A TRADE CENTER.

The business men of Sacramento, as well as all her people, have now the firmest confidence in her future greatness. She has withstood the greatest flood on record in this valley, and has demonstrated beyond a question that with the careful measures being adopted for the perpetuity of her system of levees, she is forever safe from the ravages of the waters.

How and Why She can Supply Goods of Every Description Cheaper than They can be Bought in San Francisco.

We answer—Because she has advantages possessed by no other locality—saving in freight charges, no wharf rates, low rents and light expense. Her merchants buy direct from the large manufacturing of the East and have the goods shipped by rail to their doors.

Sacramento contains some of the oldest and most firmly established mercantile houses on this coast—including everything in the line of groceries, hardware, agricultural implements, paints and oils, stationery, crockery, liquors, drugs, clothing, carpets, ladies' dresses, jewelry, woolen-ware and "earthware," furniture, stoves and tinware, boots and shoes, etc.

Her manufactures are extensive and varied including carriages and wagons, machinery, brass work, paints and tubs, boxes, brooms and matches, plows, harness, cloths, gloves, crockery, pottery, iron work, sashes, doors, etc., soap, yeast powder, marble works, pumps, windmills, fanning mills, leather, etc.

Her lumber yards are among the most extensive in the State; her foundries and machine shops among the best; her breweries numerous and good; in fact there is not a line of business which may be mentioned which is not represented in Sacramento.

She possesses many fine dry goods houses, clothing houses, millinery shops, fancy goods stores, etc., her book and news depots are of the best. She possesses every facility for doing any style of printing and binding. No better hotels or markets can be found anywhere.

WORKINGMEN'S CLUB.

According to previous announcement,

a large and enthusiastic assemblage met at Sackett's Hall, on 27th inst., and proceeded to organize a Workingmen's Club. On motion, J. C. Hulise was called to the chair, and J. A. Brown elected temporary Secretary. The roll for signers was now opened, and thirty-seven gentlemen came forward and signed their names.

After a few pointed remarks by Mr. Atwell, from Madison, the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: President, J.

C. Hulise; Vice Presidents, T. W.

Willis, R. Clark, C. H. Wolfe;

Secretary, J. A. Brown; Assistant Secretary, P. J. McGrath.

Then came the election of delegates to the County Convention, to be held at Woodland, March 20, 1878. The following were unanimously elected: J. C. Hulise,

R. Clark, J. A. Brown, P. J. Mc-

Grath, E. Hayes. On motion, the adoption of resolutions was postponed to next regular meeting.

On motion, Club adjourned, to meet on Monday evening, April

1, 1878.

J. C. HULISE, President,

J. A. BROWN, Secretary.

SACRAMENTO, A. TRADE CENTER.

We desire to call the attention of our readers to an advertisement

appearing in our columns of this week, entitled "Sacramento as a Trade Center." All should read it, as it is simply the facts in the case, and parties desiring to purchase goods of any kind can see at a glance that goods can be sold in Sacramento at much lower rates

than at any other town on the Pacific Coast. It is simply reason, and nothing can be said to the contrary.

DENTISTRY.—W. H. Robinson,

Dentist, (office and residence Susuinn) has made arrangements to spend one-fourth of his time in Winters, and will be at the Occidental Hotel, March 30th, to remain one week. Prepared to do all kinds of dental work.

Ladies, now is the time to buy dry goods of any description, at your own price. We are selling out.—Blum & Co.

GONE BELOW.—Mrs. Fitzgerald,

our milliner, went to San Francisco, yesterday, to purchase her new stock of spring goods. "She will bring goods to this place not before surpassed, and hopes to merit

a continuance of that patronage she has heretofore enjoyed.

ENGLISH MODE OF SKIMMING.—

An article in Land and Water, describing the mode, says: The milk pans were oblong in shape, made of zinc, I think 3 feet long and 24 feet broad, and about eight inches deep (I did not measure them at the time), and the bottom of the milk holder was about one inch smaller all around than the top, and each zinc basin was fitted into a wooden frame on four legs, which carried it about 24 feet from the floor of the dairy. In the bot-

Here's a little conundrum for our political friends to study over:

If a man voted for Tilden two years ago, then endorsed Hayes'

policy last Summer, and finally cast his vote for Bones—what's his politics?

Paris boasts of the most widely circulated paper in the world—a little sheet, with the title Republique Francaise, having half-a-million readers.

Cynthia Hogdon has been arrested in San Francisco, for having caused the death of a woman by producing an abortion.

PERRY'S SEMINARY, SACRAMENTO.

Perry's Seminary at Sacramento City,

Cal., reopened January 7, 1878. This school gives a full and thorough course of instruction in the English branches.

Superior advantages afforded in music and painting. An experienced teacher has been engaged to give French lessons to the entire school according to the celebrated method of Dr. Sauer. The young ladies receive these lessons at an extraordinary nominal. The primary scholars receive lessons in French, Vocal Music and Drawing with extra charge.

Jan 19-30

On account of an increase of business,

Dr. Harding, Dentist, will be compelled to remain at his Suinn office at least half of his time. His charges will be as low as first-class work can possibly be done for.

Teeth extracted without pain by the use of Liquid Nitrous Oxide, the only perfectly safe anesthetic. Will be at

Suinn, 11th to 23rd March

Rio Vista, 25th to 31st April.

Suinn, 3rd to 20th April.

Vacaville, 22nd April to 4th May.

Suinn, 6th May to Address all communications to office at Suinn.

As I shall leave Woodland shortly, I take this means of informing my friends that they may take advantage of this time to get good photographs of themselves and families. I have also adjusted my prices so low that everybody can commemorate themselves with a supply, and as I am even taking more than former pains with my work, it will be to the advantage of all to come in and secure such bargains

as will not soon again be offered. (Cabinets, four dollars per dozen; card photos, two dollars per dozen. This reduction includes all children over four years of age, or those who understand what they sit or stand for, and all others, except babies,

for which prices remain as heretofore.

Also, remember, it is for 60 days from Jan.
